Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding claim 1, the prior art does not teach or render obvious a digital pressure gauge comprising a control unit having an input connected to the pressure sensor for establishing a blood pressure value for the person, the control unit monitoring cumulative usage of the digital pressure gauge, by automatically maintaining relative to a prior calibration at least one of a count parameter corresponding to a number of operations of the digital pressure gauge and an operational duration parameter corresponding to a usage period thereto, the control unit detecting that calibration of the digital pressure gauge is required if at least one of the count and duration parameters exceeds a predetermined threshold value corresponding thereto.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
